Biography

Dr. Lu Zhang is The John W. Galbreath Chair, Professor of Finance, at Fisher College of Business, The Ohio State University, as well as Research Associate at National Bureau of Economic Research (Asset Pricing program) and Associate Editor for Journal of Financial

Economics and Journal of Financial and Quantitative Analysis. He is Founding President of Macro Finance Society, an international academic society aimed to advance and disseminate high-quality research at the intersection of finance and macroeconomics. Before joining Ohio State in 2010, he taught at Stephen M. Ross School of Business at University of Michigan and William E. Simon Graduate School of Business Administration at University of Rochester.

Dr. Zhang's research focuses on asset pricing, in relation with macroeconomics, corporate finance, labor economics, computational economics, economic history, and capital markets research in accounting. His major contribution is "The investment CAPM," which provides a unified conceptual framework for explaining asset pricing anomalies. As its empirical implementation, the q-factor model is a leading workhorse factor model in both academia and investment management industry. His theoretical work on "Endogenous disasters" shows how labor market frictions can give rise to economic disasters. Dr. Zhang has published extensively at prestigious academic journals. His Wharton doctoral thesis "The value premium" won the Smith-Breeden Award for Best Paper for 2005 from American Finance Association and Journal of Finance. His article "Which factors?" (with Hou, Mo, and Xue) won the 2019 Spängler IQAM Best Paper Prize for the best investments paper published in Review of Finance from European Finance Association. His research articles have been featured in prominent media outlets, such as Bloomberg, Financial Times, Shanghai Financial News, The Economist, The Washington Post, and Wall Street Journal.

Dr. Zhang has extensive teaching experience at the undergraduate, M.B.A., and Ph.D. levels. He has taught Investment Management, Derivative Securities, Capital Markets and Investment Strategy, Corporate Finance, Theory of Finance, and Advanced Asset Pricing. In 2015, he was voted the Outstanding Working Professional MBA Elective Faculty Award recipient by part time MBA students at Fisher College of Business, The Ohio State University.
